Ref: Kerala Circle letter no. SR/7th MV/2016/40 dated 25th April, 2016

Sir,

Please refer your office letter referred to above on the subject matter. The point-wise clarification is as follows :-

S. No.	Query	Proposed reply
1.	Some JTOs (off) who are presently undergoing training/field training are joined/expected to join duties as regular JTO on 4.4.2016/9.5.2016. However, on 30.3.2016, since their status was non-executive, their names were included in the electoral roll. But on the date of polling, they may become executive. Whether, they may be permitted for voting ?	No, an employee who acquires the status of an executive on the date of polling, i.e. 10.5.2016, cannot be permitted to cast his vote since the election is for the non-executives.
2.	Same is the case for the TTA's undergoing training/field training are expected to join duties as regular JTO on 9.5.2016. As on date, they are non-executive. On the date of polling they become executive if qualified. Whether they may be permitted for voting ?	-do-
3.	Some RM's have been appointed on compassionate ground on 5.4.2016 after the finalisation of voter's list. Whether they may be included in the voters list ?	The voters' list has already been finalized on 30.3.2016. The voters' list is not to be revised to accommodate employees who join the organisation after finalisation of voters list.

4.	One TTA has joined in Kerala Circle on 1.4.2016 from Karnataka Circle on transfer. Whether his name be included in the Kerala Circle under Malappuram SSA list?	The voters' list already finalised is not to be revised. However, to enable the TTA who is transferred from Karnataka Circle, to cast his vote, one authorisation letter can be issued on the day of polling.
