Subject:- Penalties on employees due to default in payments – reg.

Sir,

We write to apprise you again that the employees are being forced to pay the penalties to Banks, LIC and cooperative societies due to default in payment by the DDOs. The loan instalments of Banks, Societies, LIC premium welfare contributions etc have been deducted from the salary of the employees but not remitted to the concerned organisation for last several months. The officials are now required to pay to LIC the renewal cost with heavy interest. The Banks, Societies are imposing the penalties in thousands. A question arises why the employees should bear such penalties for the fault and non-payment by the management.

We, therefore, request you to please take appropriate action to protect the employees from unscheduled financial loss and sufferings.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Chandeshwar Singh)
General Secretary
